DEATH FROM HYDROPHORIA.-It is a melancholy duty to record the death, at one o'clock on Sunday morning last, (9th) of Thomas Moore, of this city, an estimable young gentlemen of 18, caused by the bite of a rabid dog, received about five weeks since. His hand, though dreadfully lacerated, had healed, and no apprehenlast, when symptoms of Hydrophobia were man-

Mr. Moore became rapidly worse, until the morning of Sunday, when he expired, after suffering the most dreadful agonies,

The effecting interests of the tragedy is heightened by the fact, that Mr. Moore was married to a young and interesting lady of this city, on the day previous to being bitten—thus adding another to to the many ties which were destined to be thus severed by an untimely death.—Louis-

John Doe has been sent to the State's Prison in Massachusetts. He was a great trascal—always en-gaged in law suits.—Phil. North American.

His equally illustrous associate, Roe, is also in durance vile, for burning a Church in this State. Hard times these, for the legal profession, when its patron saints are thus rudily dealt with.

JANUARY 1, 1842. MR. EDITOR.—Dear Sir: I am very anxious to bave it known that my remaining stock of goods which consists of a complete assortment of dry goods and dry groceries, are to be sold at exceeding low prices, for the sole purpose of raising money, which at all events I must have. If I come out with an advertisement of "Cleap Store," "Cheap for Cash," "Great reduction of Prices," "Selling off at Cosh," &c. &c. the People will not believe it; they have been heared too much for that by those who have grown old and some even grey in the business. What then shall I say? Yours truly, S. B. SCOTT.
